ber of women and children were rescued. I rescued a woman and child from a pit under one of the tents after removing two trunks, a rug and a trap door that had been

FOR CHRONIC COUGHS
Milton, Pa., Woman Has Found a Remedy.

Mrs. Howard Wagner of Milton, Pa., says: "I had a bad cold for months, and would cough every night until midnight. I consulted a doctor and took two kinds of medicine but got no relief. Vinol was recommended and after taking it a week I could sleep all night without coughing once. I continued its use and now have a fine appetite, never felt better and my cough is entirely gone."

It is a well known fact that when a person is run down, stomach out of order, or the system overloaded with waste matter, vital resistance is lowered and colds and coughs are easily contracted.

The safest and surest method we know to overcome this condition is by taking our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. In the most natural manner Vinol tones up the digestive organs, promotes a hearty appetite, enriches the blood, and as a specific for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles Vinol is unexcelled.

Try a bottle of Vinol on our offer to return your money if it fails to help you. Lee P. Alcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

THE CAR THAT STAYS NEW

Lesser-built cars may look as well, may run as well when new. But when others grow noisy, Reo the Fifth will stay silent. It will save you hundreds of dollars in the years to come in troubles, repairs and upkeep.

OTHER TESTS

All steel is made to formula and each lot is analyzed twice. Gears are tested for 75,000 pounds per tooth. Springs are tested for 100,000 vibrations. Engines get five long and radical tests, and the tested engines are taken apart and inspected.

OUR EXTRA CARE.

Reo the Fifth, built by R. E. Olds, is based on 27 years of experience. It marks our final conception of what a car should be.

It is built for the future—for what legions of users will say of us after five years.

We spend six weeks in building each car. And we add one-fourth to what the car would cost if built by other standards.

Each driving part is made one-half stronger than necessary. Each is tested to meet the requirements of a 50-horse-power engine.

We use a clutch—to prevent gear clashing—which costs twice what others cost. We use 15 roller bearings and 190 drop forgings. We use over-size tires.

Then the cars are built slowly and carefully. Parts are fitted exactly. There are countless tests and inspections.

This car is for men who want to save trouble, save upkeep, save repairs. It is for men who want years of perfect service. No other car in this class is built anywhere near like this.

Come judge this car by what you find inside.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE

MEETS CARTHAGE TODAY

Fast Game Expected When College Teams Meet—Track Meet With Milikin Tomorrow.

Today and tomorrow will be busy days for the Illinois college athletes. This afternoon at 3:30 the baseball team will meet Carthage college on Illinois field and tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock the Illinois track men will meet the Milikin university runners on the Illinois track.

The Carthage college baseball team is rather an unknown quantity because the Illinois team has thus far this season played no team which has met the Carthage players. Last season Illinois met Carthage at Carthage and were shut out in a game featured by the pitching of the Carthage twirler. The day was cloudy and very dark. The Carthage pitcher possessed terrific speed and he shot them over in such fashion that the Illinois players were powerless before him.

Today the Illinois players are out to get revenge and they will make things lively for the lads from Carthage.

The Illinois line-up will probably be: Darragh, c; Clifton or Urbaine, p; Atchison, 1b; Brewer, 2b; Gary, 3b; Banks, ss; Apple, lf; Stewart (Capt.), cf; Pierce, rf. Umpire, Clark.

The constantly increasing use of POLARINE by thousands of motorists is indisputable evidence of its lubricating efficiency.

It affords perfect lubrication to all makes and types of motor cars, motor trucks, motorcycles and motor boats.

POLARINE maintains the correct lubricating body at any motor speed or temperature.

Polarine
FRICTION REDUCING MOTOR OIL

POLARINE remains liquid at zero. POLARINE differs from all other makes of motor oils, in that it furnishes perfect lubrication to friction surfaces at extremes of temperature.

These essential characteristics obviate the necessity of changing oil for summer and winter lubrication—also the necessity of mixing kerosene, graphite and other injurious products with unsuitable and poor cold-test oil for the purpose of making it feed in winter weather.

We Keep Your Suit New!

The man who does not have his clothes dry cleaned and pressed frequently, does not get the full wear out of them.

Long before the clothes are worn out the lapels droop over, the coat front breaks, the sleeves wrinkle and pull out at the elbow, the trousers become baggy and lose their shape at the bottom, and the entire suit looks old and disreputable.

Our service keeps them clean and fresh, keeps them shaped right and fitting perfectly until they wear out. It's not only an aid to good dressing—but a real economy, as well.

Take advantage of it frequently.

FIFTEEN IN RACE FOR OREGON GOVERNORSHIP

Voters Will Find Two Hundred and Fifty Names on Ballot Today.

Portland, Ore., May 14.—With more than 250 names on the ballot, the men and women of Oregon will face something of a task when they step into the voting booths tomorrow to make their selections or candidates to be voted for in the election next fall. The primaries will decide the nominations of the Democratic, Republican and Progressive parties of candidates for United States senator, representatives in congress, members of the national committees, governor, state treasurer, justices of the supreme court, attorney general, superintendent of public instruction, state engineer, commissioner of labor statistics and inspector of factories and workshops, railroad commissioner, superintendents of water divisions, circuit court judges and members of the legislature.

There are fifteen candidates out for the governorship, the largest number seeking any office in the state. Of these eight are Republicans, five are Democrats and two are Progressives. With the exception of the governorship the contests all along the line are confined largely to the Republicans. For nearly all of the places on the ticket the Democratic and Progressive candidates are unopposed for the nomination of their respective parties.

There are to be no contests in the primaries for nominations for United States senator, representatives in one or two of the congressional districts, state treasurer, state superintendent of public instruction and several of the minor offices.

The Democrats seeking the governorship are John Manning, Col. Robert A. Miller and G. A. Cobb, all of Portland; Dr. C. J. Smith of Pendleton, and A. S. Bennett of The Dalles.

The Republicans who aspire to head the state ticket are: George C. Brownell, Oregon City; Gus C. Moser, Portland; Charles A. Johns, Portland; James Withycombe, Corvallis; ex-Governor T. T. Geer, Portland; William A. Carter, Portland; A. M. Crawford, Roseburg, and Grant B. Dimmick, Oregon City.

The two Progressives who are contesting for the nomination of their party for governor are F. M. Gill of Portland, and L. K. McMahon of Salem.

The candidates who will be named without opposition for the United States senatorship are George E. Chamberlain (the incumbent), Democrat, R. A. Booth, Republican, and William H. Boring, Progressive.

For state supreme judges there is a spirited contest for the Republican nomination, with practically no contests in the other two parties. For the nomination for attorney general there are five Republican candidates, an only one Democrat, and for labor commissioner there are four Republican candidates, and no Democrats or Progressives. It is expected the Democrats and Progressives will fill out their tickets by writing in the names of candidates.

DON CAMERON 81 YEARS OLD.

Middletown, Pa., May 14.—Don Cameron, for twenty years a member of the United States senate and for a short time secretary of war in President Grant's cabinet, celebrated his 81st birthday anniversary today. Mr. Cameron is in good health and still able to give personal attention to his large financial, mining and manufacturing interests. For some years he has taken no active part in politics.

Misfits.

By WALT MASON.

So many men now wield the pen, who should be herding cattle! So many shirks who should be clerks now make the welkin rattle! So many skates are filling dates as Hamlet or Othello, who ought to rush and get a brush and paint a cow-shed yellow! I go to church and take a perch where I can hear the speaking and then the priest knocks galley east my comfort with his squeaking. I concerts seek, say twice a week, to hear some music charming; then unless jays a discord raise—they should be busy farming. And there are dames who jar our frames with their "dramatic readings"; we wish they'd quit, and sew and knit, but they resist our pleadings. Of seven men it seems that ten to wrong trades are committed; we seldom find a man whose grind is that for which he's fitted. Thus knights and peers are auctioneers and blacksmiths are musicians, and gifted bards are spading yarks, and grocers are physicians. Yet let's be gay, the livelong day, and dance and sing and frolic; it will not help to kick and yell, or have eight kinds of colic.

HOOVER DEMONSTRATION TODAY

Of the Modern Sanitary Way to "Clean House"

THE Hoover Suction Sweeper shakes, vigorously sweeps and draws out all dirt in your rugs—without injury to the nap—in fact, brings it back to the correct position and restores the original colors. The action of the Hoover is this:

The air suction lifts the rug from the floor and holds it so that the electrically revolved brush (a Hoover patent) loosens the dirt, thread and lint embedded in the body of the rug. The powerful air suction sucks all the dirt out. This is the only way you can thoroughly clean and the Hoover is the only machine that does it. Will you come in and try the Hoover yourself? Do it today.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES.

It will surprise no one if, within the next few days, the name of Harry Lord appears in the lineup of one of the outlaw teams. His desertion of the Sox, because "he felt himself slipping," is regarded by many people on the inside as a makeshift. Certain it is, Lord has been playing this season the punkiest kind of ball—the worst in his seven short spasms as a professional. His homehead break at Washington on Tuesday in the sixth inning probably convinced the Maine hunter that he was about ripe to step into the Feds. At that crucial point in the game he left third base uncovered and was holding a social confab with Buck Weaver while Senator Milan was burning up the gangways.
Hal Chase relayed the ball from Bodie, and, without stopping to look, shot it to third, which was left uncovered by Lord, allowing Milan to scamper home. For several weeks past he, with others of the Sox, have threatened to jump, and Tuesday's feast of ivory undoubtedly hastened the exit of Capt. Harry.

Red Kuhn, who in the last few games, was doing some excellent backstopping for the Sox, was again lipped on Wednesday at Washington when his throwing hand was hurt in the same spot that it was on the spring training trip. Press dispatches say Red is broken hearted by his tough luck.

Tip Top Bread Ward, president of the Brookfords, has rolled up his sleeves and has given notice to o. b.
that if it is a fight they are looking for, he and his mates are ready to get into the fray. Organized baseball magnates must cease their war on the Federals shortly, Robert B.
Ward announces, if they do not want opposition in Manhattan immediately. He is ready at any time to guarantee financial aid for a team in opposition to the Giants and the Yankees.

No, Clarice, the Dalton playing with the Brooklyn Nationals is not "our" Major Dalton. Major in his time was not that kind of a player—at bat, 4; runs, 0; putout, 2; assists, 0; errors, 2.

Leslie Nunamaker, with Boston's Rox Sox the past three seasons, has been sold to Frank Chance and will become a second string to Eddie Sweeney behind the gun.

The Buffeds, in cleaning house, on Wednesday unconditionally annexed a can to Pitchers Schlitz and Pur-roy and Outfielder Pettigrew. Pur-roy: When a player who jumps an
o. b. contract is fired by the outlaws, where is his next port of entry?

Cubs' park, Chicago, was invaded by the Chifeds Wednesday. The players stormed the gate while President Weegman, his partner, Walker, Secretary Williams and other members of the team paid real money to watch the Bruins slaughter Brooklyn.

The Sox whaled Washington Wednesday, causing the war scries with the team to dub them "the rejuvenated Sox." Last week they were "the crew with the Jonah and the jinx."

President Gilmore of the Feds has taken the Killifer case into the United States circuit court of appeals, asking for a new trial and an injunction restraining the moody catcher from playing with the Quakers. It is not likely that the appeal will be taken up before the fall term of court so that Doolin, barring accidents, is certain of his nifty backstop's services during the greater part of this season.

Chink Mattick is dazzling the American association circuit by his brilliant fielding; but the speedy holder only occasionally displays a flash with the willow.

"Diamond Speckled" Harry Mc-Intyre, once a star hurler with Brooklyn and the Cubs, was unconditionally separated from the Pelican, New Orleans, payroll on Wednesday. The googoes are now flying at Churchill Downs and at Pimlico, so that Harry can exclaim: "Fish ka bibble!"

Fire destroying the club house at the Homewood Country club, has compelled the Women's Western Golf association to seek a new course on which to hold the women's western championship August

Joyful Anticipation of Motherhood

There is apt to be a latent apprehension of distress to mar the complete joy of expectation. But this is quite overcome by the advice of so many women to use "Mother's Friend." This is an external application designed to soothe the muscles and to thus relieve the pressure reacting on the nerves, that the natural strain upon the cords and ligaments is not accompanied by those severe pains said to cause nausea, morning sickness and many local distresses. This splendid embrocation is known to a multitude of mothers.

They have used it during the period when they could realize the value of timely and helpful advice. That is why they recommend it.

Many people believe that those remedies which have stood the test of time, that have been put to every trial under the varying conditions of age, weight, general health, etc., may be safely relied upon. And judging by the fact that "Mother's Friend" has been in continual use since our grandmother's earlier years and is known throughout the United States it may be easily inferred that it is something that women talk about and gladly recommend to prospective mothers.

"Mother's Friend" is prepared only in our own laboratory and is sold by druggists everywhere. Ask for a bottle to-day and write for a special book for expectant mothers. Address: Bradford Regulator Co., 507 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

It should be remembered that what is said of "Mother's Friend" is the thought expressed by the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

"Gets-It" for Corns On Your Piggy-Wiggies!

Quit Pattering With Corns. Use This Sure, New-Plan Corn Cure.

A few drops of "GETS-IT," the biggest seller in the world today of any corn remedy, is enough to spell positive doom to the fiercest corn that ever cemented itself to a toe. It's good-bye Johnnie. You apply "GETS-IT" in two seconds—no fussing with plasters that don't stay put, with salves that make corns "pull" and make the toe beefy and raw, with knives, scissors, razors and dippers that make corns grow faster and that may cause blood poison from corn-cutting and corn-bleeding. "GETS-IT" shrivels up corns, they come right off. That's the new principle. It's just common sense. No more corn-pains. "GETS-IT" is safe, and never hurts the flesh. Get rid of corns and calluses.

"GETS-IT" is sold at 25c a bottle by all druggists, or sent direct if you wish, from E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

AMERICANS FILL NORWAY'S CAPITAL.

Christiana, May 14.—Thousands of Americans have been included in the host of visitors who have landed in Christiana the past week or ten days in anticipation of the opening of the great celebration in honor of the centennial of Norway's independence of Denmark. The largest delegations of these American visitors, whose years of residence in the western world have never destroyed their love for the mother land, come from Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, the Dakotas and the western provinces of Canada. Included among them are bankers, merchants, clergymen, educators and men of other pursuits and professions, together with hundreds of others who have won wealth and independence as tillers of the soil.

Several American states have elaborate exhibits in the national exhibition which is about to open here and an Iowa band is to be given the honor of heading the great patriotic procession which is to usher in the centennial festivities next Sunday. In the lavish decorations with which the city is now being adorned the Stars and Stripes and the bunting of red, white and blue are to be seen everywhere intertwined with the national colors of Norway.

FARMERS NOTICE

We Are Now Manufacturing Fertilizers For Soil

We have made a careful study of soil conditions and are now putting up an article which is considered the best on the market for INCREASED YIELD OF Corn or Oats. The same has the following analysis:

Bone phosphate 63.02 per cent.
Phosphoric acid 28.90 per cent.
Nitrogen 2.53 per cent.
Ammonia 3.07 per cent.

If you will carefully compare the analysis of our ROYAL BRAND BONE MEAL, you will find that the same is cheaper than the use of Rock Phosphate or any other fertilizers which are now on the market.

It only requires from 100 to 150 pounds of our BONE MEAL to an acre of soil, depending upon the condition of the soil. This will increase your yield of corn or oats from 10 to 20 bushels to the acre for the first year.

LONG AGO IN NAPLES.

The Moers-Carver Families.
By Mr. Ensley Moore.

It is not exaggerating to say that any one who lived in Naples about 1850, and did not know Royal Moers and John H. Carver, was not well posted.

Royal Moers was the son of Levi Moers, as the latter called himself. Levi was born in New Hampshire, in 1782, and was of Scotch-Irish descent. His parents died when he was quite young, and he lived with an uncle as long as he could stand the uncle's cruelty. When that became unbearable and he had become about 15 years of age, Levi ran away and changed his name from Moers to Moore. This latter is a name about the length of Lake Champlain, New York, where there is a Moers Junction.

Levi Moers found his way out to the far west and south, and was a flatboatman between Cincinnati and New Orleans. He became a carpenter and built the first house or houses in Xenia, Ohio. He was a soldier in the war of 1812. He became a lumber dealer, and was interested in steamboats toward the last. His daughter thinks he never was a captain, but I always understood he was a steamboat commander. At any rate it was said he named a daughter for one his favorite boats.

Levi married a lady in the east, inferentially, and Royal Moers was born on Lake George, which lies in northern New York state. After coming to Cincinnati, Levi Moers married the widow Carver.

Royal had three sisters and one brother, who grew up, also some younger children of Levi's died in Cincinnati. The married names of own sisters were Calista Flint, Jane Smith and Fannie, who married Daniel Vandundy, who was for many years baggage man for the Walshaw at the station in Springfield, where Mr. Vandundy died only a few years ago.

Levi Moers had but one child, as I understand it, after his marriage about 1836 to the widow Carver. This was a girl named M. Belle Moers, who was born on her father's place, "Riverside," on the banks of the Illinois, about a mile below Naples, in 1838. For the Moers family came out to Illinois apparently soon after Mr. Moers married Mrs. Carver, about 1836.

Levi Moers died at Naples in 1849, and soon after his widow, who most of her family, moved back to the place where they stayed until 1843, when they returned to Naples.

In 1850 Mrs. Moers became the second wife of Benjamin Green, a well-to-do farmer, who lived "on the bluffs" just below where the town of Bluffs is now (in Scott county). He was the father of Mrs. Oakes, and that family is a prominent one today. Henry Oakes and Royal Oakes were of that connection. Mr. Green was a fine old Englishman, and died in 1882. Mrs. Green died in 1872.

Royal Moers married Miss Mary Funk, about 1844. I think he was a clerk for Joshua Moore at first; afterward they were partners in the lumber, grain and packing business, and Royal Moers had accumulated quite a handsome fortune, when he came to Chicago to live and engage in business, about 1856. There, it was said, a certain man cheated him out of his money, and he came back to Naples about 1859.

Mr. Moers was a handsome and pleasant man, who had many friends, so he broke into the Illinois legislature, where he served one term as a Democrat. He was a man of exceptional business capacity, one capable of being what it is now called a "captain of business," so he soon got going again in good shape, after his return to Naples about 1858. He was a member of the Masonic lodge, No. 101.

He grew to be quite stout as he grew older, and perhaps that impaired his health, for it was not long for some time before his death.

Royal Moers died at Kenosha, Wis., August 15, 1869 aged 46 years and 5 months, and was buried in the cemetery at Naples. He and his wife were the parents of four children, who grew up. The children were Royal, Jr., Kate, John Henry and Walter. Royal became a soldier in the 129th Reg. Ill. Vols., and was one of "Sherman's bummers." He first married Miss Ceres Keener, daughter of Thomas C. Keener. They had two sons and one daughter. They separated and Royal was married twice afterward. He was living with his last wife at the time of his death, about 20 years ago, at Meredosia.

Kate married, quite young, Edward H. Moore, son of one of the most prominent business men in Bloomington. Ed H. served in the war, becoming a captain, although very young for the position. He and Kate were the parents of one boy, Royal, and, I think, one girl. They separated. Mrs. Moore afterward married Mr. Garland, city ticket agent of the Wabash in Kansas City, Mo. She died about 25 years ago.

John Henry was born in 1853, and so far as I am certain, never married. He resembled his father, most of any of the children, and was quite good looking in his young days. He died about 18 years ago. Walter was born in 1856, and first married about Pittsburgh. He separated from his wife, and afterwards married again. He lived the latter part of his life in Kansas City, Mo., where he left his widow, and I think some children, at his death, about ten years ago.

Mrs. Mary Moers, widow of Royal, Sr., died in Naples, in 1862, and her daughter, Kate, and the two younger boys, John Henry and Walter, went to Jacksonville, where they made their home with Joshua Moore, who became their guardian. Kate remained there, except when away at school at Elmira college, N. Y., until 1867, when she went to Bloomington, where her aunt resided. The boys, John and Walter, remained at Mr. Moore's until about 1870. Walter attended school a while in 1872 or 1873, at Belleville, N. Y. John attended school a term or two at Lake Forest academy, near Chicago. Joshua Moore became guardian of the Moers children. His health began to fail in 1871, so, latterly he turned over the guardianship of the two younger boys to Judge E. P. Kirby, of Jacksonville. Mr. Moore had settled with Royal and Kate on their coming of age.

Royal Moers' half sister, M. Belle Moers, to whom reference has already been made, was a very pretty young girl and woman. She boarded some time, in 1853, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Moore, in Perry, in order to attend Mrs. E. N. Barker's private school, one of the best, at that time, in the state. Belle afterwards attended the Methodist Female college in Jacksonville, but married young. Her husband was a prominent family in Bloomington, where the young people made their home. They had one son to grow up, Wilber Fletcher, who died Oct. 1, 1903, leaving a son, Lewis J. Thomas.

Mrs. Belle M. Thomas, who is still a bright and well preserved lady, is now living in Pasadena, California, her husband having died Jan. 11, 1903. Lewis B. Thomas was a well known business man of Bloomington, of which city he was mayor. I think, several terms. He was a Republican in politics.

Mrs. Thomas has been in Pasadena about three years.

Margaretta Fusselbough, or Fusselbough, born in Baltimore, Maryland, of Holland "Dutch" ancestry, must have been a charming young woman when George W. Carver won her as his wife, about 1825, for she was a handsome and pleasant lady in the late "fifties," when she was living with her third husband, Benjamin Green, "on the bluffs." Mr. Carver was an upholsterer and dealer in furniture in Cincinnati, Ohio, and they were the parents of John H. Carver and G. W. Carver, who died young.

George W. Carver died about 1830, and as stated before his widow married Levi Moers, about 1836, and they soon came to Naples.

This brings John H. Carver to Naples. Probably he went back to Ohio, with his mother, after Levi Moers' death, as his half sister states, "we all went back to Ohio after that." This could hardly apply to Royal Moers, Sr., who must have stayed in Naples.

At any rate John H. Carver was in Naples early, where he married Miss Almira Kellogg, daughter of Capt. Edwin Kellogg. Mrs. Carver died about 1853, leaving her husband with two little boys, Royal and George.

The first time this writer saw Mr. Carver he was keeping books for Joshua Moore and Royal Moers, in their office on the main street of Naples, about two blocks south of the depot. This was about 1852 or 1853.

Mr. Carver went into the dry goods and general store business with Dr. Mauck, in Naples, about 1855. They kept up their store there until about 1859, when Mr. Carver went to Meredosia and started a store there, I think under the name of J. H. Carver & Co. Otho Critzer went up there with Carver. Mr. Carver latterly became president of the bank at Meredosia, but he kept his store going until his death in 1903.

It should have been stated that Mr. Carver was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 12, 1826; he died in Meredosia, May, 19, 1903.

Mr. Carver was a member of the Methodist church and a Mason, being a member of Hospitaler, Commandery, Knights Templar. The writer never heard a word said against his honesty or integrity. He was certainly one of the most even tempered and pleasant men to be known.

Mr. Carver married Miss Kate Steel, of Murraville, Ill., at the house of Stafford Smith, in Meredosia, in the fall of 1866. The writer had the honor of "standing up" with him. Miss Steel was the daughter of James Steel, who was of a distinguished Pennsylvania family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carver were the parents of two children, Mrs. Kate Carver Scoll and Wm. Steel Carver. Mrs. Carver and her children reside in Meredosia, her daughter being a widow. The latter is a graduate of the Illinois Woman's college, and a student of music.

Mrs. Carver is still a good looking lady, although not so young as when she was married. But she certainly struck it well when she became the wife of so good a man as John H. Carver.

It goes without saying that the Carvers kept up their acquaintance with Naples, and were well known there.

Such is in part the life story of two pioneer business men of Illinois, together with some references to their relatives and other associates.

PREPARE FOR BIG MEET.

Entry blanks have been sent to every high school and academy in the middle west and western states for the 13th annual Interscholastic meet of the University of Chicago. Under the guidance of Director A. A. Stagg, this event which will be held on June 13, has come to be known as "The World's Biggest Interscholastic."

The new track, and the splendid condition of the field, may be counted on to help in establishing new records. Last year's meet was notable for the time made in the dashes. Hoyt, of Greenfield, Iowa, winning the 100 yard race in 9.4-5 seconds and also the 220 yard event in 21.4-5 seconds.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Seymour of Franklin were among the Thursday visitors in the city.

Putting on the Fat

Out on my farm I am giving a practical demonstration of what can be accomplished with the Wood's Grain Softener.

There are 43 cattle in the bunch. Each steer is getting a peck of corn daily. It is ground, cob and all and then cooked. In addition to the corn, each steer gets about nine pounds of clover hay a day and straw is near them all the time. A man with long experience, who has been watching these cattle, says they are putting on three to four pounds a day. They are sure making good money and the reason is that corn prepared in my cooker has far more nutriment value than fed in the ordinary way. Come and see these cattle.

The Feed That Will Bring Results

We use care in selecting the feed we sell and when you buy corn, oats, hay or other grain here you know it is of the best quality. Good feed costs no more than the other kind yet there is a lot of difference in the results.

Horses sell highest in early spring. There's a reason. Seed wheat sells highest in early autumn. There's a reason. We can buy horses cheaper in mid-summer. There's a reason. When would you expect to buy a farm cheapest? Surely when there are fewest buyers in the market.

Our prospective buyers say they are too busy now to go to see land. Better go now—likely to get a real bargain that will pay you amply for your time. Go when everybody else is too busy, and have things your own way. Buy it now, and collect the rent for this year.

Prospective buyers should list their orders with us for a farm—now. Let us find what you want where you go on with your work. That is a part of our business. Then go NOW to see it.

There are sometimes most agreeable surprises in store for purchasers of land this season.

Land in Illinois, Missouri, Dakota, New Mexico, Texas, California and Kansas. Let us tell you about it.

THE EXPRESS IS IN THIS TOWN AND IN TO STAY

FOR seventy-five years—three quarters of a century—the express has been the right-hand of the shippers of commercial America. The express came to Jacksonville in 1855 and it came to stay. For 59 years it has been the right-hand of commercial Jacksonville.

It is here to stay. The other day when reports went out that the express companies might retire from business, a protest went up. From whom this protest—the express companies? No! The merchants of the country—shippers everywhere—petitioned Congress that no action be taken that might have the effect of forcing the express companies to retire. Commercial organizations all over the land have joined in this appeal to Washington.

For seventy-five years in the past and for a good many more years in the future Express Service will mean

WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

THE DEADLOCK IS BROKEN IN THE STOCK MARKET

Quotations Advance Definitely—News
From Mexico Is Distinctly Bullish
More Cheerful Sentiment in Regard to Steel Trade.

New York, May 14.—The deadlock was broken in the stock market today. Quotations advanced definitely from the recent fixed level. Stocks of all classes shared in the improvement, which put up many of them 1 to 2 points. The advance while slow was steady without an interval of heaviness during the day.

The news from Mexico was referred to as distinctly bullish. The fall of Tampico was interpreted as an indication that the elimination of General Huerta might soon be accomplished, which it was thought would enhance the prospects of peaceful settlement.

As the market advanced there was evidence of uneasiness among the shorts and it was apparent that the sustained rise was due partly to an oversold condition. Another influence making for higher prices was the more cheerful sentiment in regard to the steel trade. Speculation in United States steel was the most active feature of the market and it developed pronounced strength.

Sterling exchange advanced again, reaching a new high point for the movement.

Bankers were of the opinion that gold coin could be exported profitably with demand sterling at 4.8850, which is not far from the ruling level.

300 LICE Or More On One Hen

Is by no means uncommon. No one would expect to find a lice on a hen, but many expect to find the old hen to go ahead and shed out eggs while lice and mites are sapping her very life. We have counted over 300 dead lice under a rove of ten hens, on a roost had painted the night before with Lee's Kill. These lice do not double duty—contact kills mites, lice, bedbugs, etc. about the roosts; the vapor kills lice on the chickens sitting over it. Put up only in airtight cans.

GOOD ROADS WILL COME WITH MONEY EXPENDITURE

Tice Law Permits Farmers to Select Mains and Designate Order of Improvement—Relieves Them of Large Part of Cost.

(Mr. S. E. Bradt, State Highway Commissioner, in Address Before Illinois Farmers' Institute.) There are many things in the state of Illinois waiting for good roads; the consolidation of schools, the back to the farm movement, as well as many other things, but what are good roads waiting for? They are only waiting for the money with which to build them. We have the law and are in shape to build the roads just as soon as we get the necessary funds, and that is what we must have before we can make much progress.

I want to call your attention for just a moment to the cost that will come upon the farmers. Under the old law the burden of road improvement rested upon the township, and if there was no village within the township at all rested upon the farmers, or get along without the improvement. A number of the large cities paid no share of the cost of the roads in their vicinity. The limits of the city of Galesburg and the township in which Galesburg is located are identical. Therefore, the city of Galesburg has paid no cost of road improvement outside of the city limits. In consequence, Galesburg is surrounded by mud roads.

On the contrary the city of Rockford is located in an extraordinarily large township, the limits of which extend several miles beyond the limits of the city. Rockford has been paying a road and bridge tax, a large part of which has been expended outside of the city. They therefore have a fine system of well macadamized roads outside of the city extending to the limits of the township.

Chicago is one of the cities that has been paying no part of the improvement and maintenance of roads outside of Cook county. The new law brings Chicago into the field of assisting in road construction under a state tax. It also brings Galesburg and every other large city into the field of road building through a county tax as well as the state tax.

Under the new law only 25 per cent of the amount that is paid into the state road fund from Cook county is expended in Cook county, leaving 75 per cent of the amount which Cook county pays, or $360,000 out of $1,100,000 appropriated to be expended in the state outside of Cook county. This amount which Cook county pays to be expended on down state roads, together with the amounts contributed by the cities, reduces the proportion which the farmer pays for improving this system of state aid roads to 40 per cent of the total cost.

Some 800 townships in which farmers paid at least 90 per cent of the cost of road improvement will, under the new law, take from the farmers and 40 per cent of the cost of the improvement. The balance of the cost of the roads will be paid as follows: 16 per cent by city lots and improvements, 16 per cent by personal property, 9 per cent by railroads and other corporations, 19 per cent by Cook county. Including the appropriations from the legislature amounting to 1,100,000, and the fund contributed by the counties of like amount, there will be expended upon the roads of this state during 1914 and 1915, $2,200,000. Of this amount $240,000 will be expended in Cook county, leaving $1,960,000 to be expended outside of Cook county. Forty per cent of this amount would be $784,000, slightly in excess of 2 cents per acre on the 34,000,000 acres of farm land in the state of Illinois. These figures are given you as confirmations of the provisions of this law and directly in the interest of the farmer.

Below you will find a table showing the method by which the above figures are reached:

Personal property pays 263-1336 of $1,598,400—$317,048, or 16 per cent of $1,959,360.

Railroads and corporations pay 147-1336 of $1,598,400—$175,872, or 9 per cent of $1,959,360.

Total aid, $1,598,400. Cook county pays $260,960, or 19 per cent of $1,359,360.

Total amount to be expended outside Cook county, $1,959,360, of 100 per cent.

If time permitted, I should be glad to go over the features of the Tice bill more in detail. As it does not, I will close by calling your attention to one feature as it pertains to the farmer. It has been said in some sections of the state that this commission is committed to building trans-continental highways and through routes. This, you will understand, we cannot do when you learn that the various boards of supervisors or county commissioners throughout the state are the people who designate this entire system of state aid roads. I think I am not overstating the facts when I say that 75 per cent of the supervisors are farmers. It is, therefore, apparent that the farmers determine which are the main market roads connecting the various centers of population throughout the state. They not only determine the state aid roads, but they also determine the order in which this system of roads shall be improved. I therefore say that this law not only gives the farmers the right to designate this system of state aid roads, but also relieves them of a very large part of the cost of improving these roads as compared with the former legislation.—Illinois Farmers' Institute.

POULTRY CULTURE. Article XXXIII.

Internal Parasites—Worms are the most troublesome internal parasites of poultry. The gapeworm infests the windpipe. It is dangerous only to young chickens. Tapeworms and roundworms of many varieties infest all kinds of poultry, being found mostly in the intestines and digestive organs. When present in small numbers they do little damage to strong, robust birds, and do not often multiply dangerously when sanitary conditions are good. When a stock of poultry becomes badly infested with worms, the numbers of parasites which may simultaneously attack a strong bird may be so great that its strength is of little advantage. In such cases it is advisable to kill off all stock and keep no poultry on the land for several years. Stock from a badly infested flock, if taken to new land, carries the worms with it.

External Parasites—Lice are often referred to as enemies against which the poultry keeper must wage unremitting warfare. This view exaggerates the importance of direct personal efforts to keep these parasites in subjection. There are two general classes of lice—those which live upon the birds and those which only feed upon them, remaining at other times in crevices about the roosts and nests. Neither kind does perceptible damage when present in small numbers or multiplies too rapidly on adult birds when sanitary conditions are good, when the birds are vigorous, and when ample opportunity is given them to "dust" themselves. Some live on dead skin and feather particles. Very few birds are absolutely free from lice, even when treated regularly with insecticides.

The presence of lice in small number on the bodies of poultry is, by some authorities, considered beneficial. They rarely become seriously detrimental to any strong stock kept under favorable conditions. Treatment for them should be necessary only in incubating poultry, on young birds when very small, and on old one when confined with opportunity to free themselves from lice. Continued necessity for fighting lice shows plainly that some other conditions need attention. It may be the vitality of the stock; it may be the sanitary conditions; it may be that, once allowed to establish themselves, the lice, though constantly fought, have never been effectively treated. (This is the case especially with red mites, which secrete themselves about the roosts.) For lice on poultry, dry insecticides (powdered) are used; for lice about the roosts, nests and buildings, liquid insecticides are applied freely to infested places.

Vices—The bad habits of poultry are developed almost wholly in close confinement under unsatisfactory conditions. Feather eating, egg eating, and various forms of cannibalism common among closely confined poultry are rarely seen among fowls at liberty amid favorable surroundings, and give comparatively little trouble among closely confined birds if the conditions are sanitary and they have something to occupy their attention. Feeding in littered floors, supplying dry ground grains in hoppers, and giving cabbages, mangels and dried meat and fish all help to prevent vices by giving the birds something to do and think about. Vices once started spread rapidly. The only effective way to suppress them is by improving the conditions. Sometimes a change of quarters and the removal of the worst offenders will stop a bad habit not too firmly established. The reliable cure is right conditions.—H. A. McKeene, Secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute.

INSPECTION OF GAS METERS PROVIDED IN FRANCHISE

Proposed Measure Has Sections Which Give Opportunity to Consumers of Verifying Showing Made By Meters.

With reference to inspection of gas meters and with a view toward guaranteeing to gas patrons certain accuracy and the quality of gas the franchise given a first reading by the city council has numerous provisions. Among these provisions are sections 8 and 9 which are quoted below.

Section 8.—That the City Council may appoint for the city an inspector some suitable person competent to test gas meters and to test the quality, purity, pressure and illuminating and heating power of gas, and the City Council may appoint a deputy inspector who shall be a competent person to make any and all tests hereafter provided for which he shall be required and directed to make, said deputy so appointed shall have the power, under the direction of the inspector, to perform any duty which he shall be competent to perform and which the inspector herein is required to do, and the inspector and his deputy so appointed shall take and file an oath of office as other city officers are required to do, and shall respectively execute to the city and file with the city clerk a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, and his deputy a bond in the sum of five hundred dollars, with such conditions as the City Council may prescribe or approve.

That the inspector may, on or prior to the first day of April, 1915, provide and thereafter maintain at the city's expense a suitable place (to be known as the meter inspection room) for the purpose of testing therein all meters complained of by consumers of gas and all other meters used by the company for the measurement of gas. And the company shall be entitled to have a representative present in said room at all times, while any meter is being tested, proved or sealed therein, and be entitled also at all reasonable times to test and prove the accuracy of any appliance used in the testing of meters and the methods used in the testing thereof.

Removing Meter For Inspection. Section 9.—That when a consumer shall make complaint concerning the accuracy of his meter and pay to the inspector a fee of one dollar the inspector shall give notice of such complaint to the company, which shall thereupon, in the presence of the inspector at such time as he shall designate, remove said meter from the premises of the consumer to the meter inspection room, and shall also at the time install, in place of the one so removed, another meter duly tested and proved and sealed.

The inspector, at the time of such removal of any meter, shall securely paste thereon a slip of paper containing his signature, the date of such removal and the description of the premises from which the meter is removed. The meter so removed shall, unless another time be agreed upon, be tested at nine o'clock a. m. of the succeeding day (omitting Sundays and holidays) at which time a representative of the company and also the consumer may be present. And if, upon being tested, the meter so complained of be found inaccurate or defective upon any of the tests herein provided for, the one dollar paid by the complainant shall be returned to him, and the company shall in his stead pay one dollar to the city treasurer, as herein provided.

And whenever any meter, upon being tested, as in this paragraph provided, shall be found to measure quantities more than two per cent (2 per cent) in excess of the standard measurement of gas, the consumer from whose premises such meter shall have been removed, shall be entitled to receive from the company a rebate or return of a sum equal to the percentage of such excess of all moneys paid by the consumer to the company, and measured by such meter from the time it had been installed or previously tested until the time of such retesting thereof, not exceeding however, a period of six months.

Meters Must Be Tested. That the company shall not after said inspection room shall have been so provided install any gas meter in the premises of any consumer which shall not have been, subsequent to the prior use of the same, tested, proved and sealed by the inspector as herein provided. And the company shall not thereafter use any such gas meter within said city more than three years after it shall have been tested, proved and sealed or retested, approved and re-sealed by the inspector, in accordance with the provisions herein provided, however, that the company may continue the use of each of its meters, now installed and in service unless complaint thereof be made, or unless found to be defective, until the same shall be tested by the inspector, as herein provided.

That from and after the time when the inspection room shall be provided and maintained by the inspector, as aforesaid, the company shall detach and remove to be tested, proved and sealed by the inspector as herein provided, its meters now or then in service as follows, to wit: At least one hundred thereof each and every month, and all of the same prior to the first day of July, 1915; said meters to be removed and delivered to the inspector respectively in the order in which the same have been tested by the company, another meter being installed in the place of each one so removed. And (except as hereinbefore specified, in case of a meter complained of by a consumer) for each such meter which shall be thus proved, tested and sealed by the inspector, the company shall pay to the city treasurer the sum of twenty-five cents (25c) as specified herein. That the inspector shall carefully protect and guard all meters which come into his possession for inspection and shall tightly cork all such meters during the time the same are in his custody and not being tested. And the inspector in the testing of each meter, shall subject the same to two tests: first, one which proves accurately its registration by means of the standard gauge in ordinary use; second, one which proves the steadiness of the light and the freedom of the meter from leakage. If, under the first test, any meter shall be found to register quantities incorrectly to an extent exceeding two per cent; or, if under the second test, the meter is found to leak, or if any noticeable fluctuation in the light is observed; the meter shall be turned over to the company for readjustment and the same shall not be again used until the defect is remedied, the meter again tested, found to be correct and duly sealed. But every meter shall be considered correct as to the first test when duly certified and sealed which shall register quantities varying not more than two per cent from the standard measure of gas.

Recording of Testimony. That the inspector shall have a card made which he shall attach to each meter tested by him and upon such card shall be given the date connected with the testing the meter and the time of testing. If the meter be found to be correct and be so certified by the inspector he shall seal the same by a suitable device. And no person other than inspector or his deputy shall unseal any such meter or deface, alter, or remove any card so attached thereto by him, or place thereon any card or writing purporting to be the certificate of the inspector.

That the inspector shall also number consecutively each and all meters by him tested upon the same card attached thereto, and shall enter in a book kept as a part of the records of his office the number of each meter so tested, the date of the testing thereof, the manufacturer's name and number of the company's number if the same appears thereon.

That the inspector shall upon the first day of each month file in the office of the city clerk a certified statement, showing the sum due from the company to the city for the testing of meters upon the complaint of consumers, or otherwise, during the previous calendar month; and the company shall within five days thereafter pay to the city treasurer the sum due from it to the city for such testing of meters during such previous months. And all money received by the inspector upon complaint of any consumer, when it is determined that his meter is not inaccurate or defective by any of the tests herein prescribed, shall forthwith be paid to the city treasurer by the inspector.

EAST ST. LOUIS LIVESTOCK MARKET.

National Stock Yards, Ill., May 14.—Blakely-Sanders-Mann Co., make the following report: Cattle receipts have been moderate since Tuesday, the offering of good beef steers has been very light. Values show strong to 10c higher on the best kind, while the medium steers are about like they were Monday. Quite a few bunches of weighty steers that were pretty good, sold around $3.75, but nothing choice in this class was offered. Some cattle here yesterday weighed around 1,000 pounds on the yearling style brought $9.95. There has been quite a liberal offering in the yearling class of steers and butcher heifers, the good kinds have held about steady, others are 10 to 15c lower, there have been several loads sold here since Monday in a radius of 8.65 to $8.90. Cow trade until today held up alright, but owing to the fact there has been several shipments of southern steers which come in competition with our cows in the selling of the meat, they show 10 to 15c lower. No particular change in stockers and feeders. We think the indications point to a fair market the first of next week.

Hogs. The run of hogs yesterday and today has been very moderate but the market even under light receipts has not shown any strength. With 6,500 on sale today, the market was weak to 5c lower, with a top of $8.50 for a few. Most of the good hogs $4.40 to $4.45; light to good mixed $3.25 to $3.40; good weight pigs brought 7.70 to $8.15; light pigs 7.00 to $7.75; rough packers sold largely at 7.90 to 8c. Do not look for any material change in the next few days.

WORKED ON CORNER STONE FOR COURT HOUSE

John C. Pires Had Important Part in Ceremonies Which Occurred Forty-Six Years Ago.

John C. Pires said yesterday that he was interested in reading mention in yesterday's Journal of John N. Ward's recollection of the laying of the corner stone of the court house. Mr. Pires was present at the ceremonies too and has special occasion to remember the exercises because he did practically all the work in dressing the corner stone and in making ready the place it was to occupy. Mr. Pires said: "I was serving my time as an apprentice in those days in Joseph DeGamm's yard which was located along the Wabash road in about the spot which now is occupied by the York coal yard. Mr. Underwood had the contract for the court house work and appealed to Mr. DeGamm for assistance. J. G. Gardin and I were sent on the job and I think Manuel DeLess was also one of the workers but I am not sure about that. We worked there for three weeks so that I have a very vivid recollection of the whole court house job and the corner stone laying. A big crowd was there that day and the occasion was considered one of the most notable in the history of the county."

Counting the term of his apprenticeship Mr. Pires has been a stone worker forty-eight years.

LOCAL DELEGATES RETURN FROM SYNOD MEETING IN SPRINGFIELD

Rev. Mr. Neely is Chosen a Delegate to Council in Detroit to Organize a Synod Comprising Five States.

The Rev. H. R. Neely, H. M. Andre and William Robinson have returned from Springfield where they represented Trinity Parish at the thirty-seventh annual Synod of the Episcopal church held in the diocese of Springfield May 13 and 14.

Matters of general and local interest were treated, the most important being a better support of the Episcopal part of the state and Sunday school work. An important forward movement was inaugurated in which the diocese of Springfield has been a pioneer for the past forty years. This is the information of a province with Synod to accompany it, comprising the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan. This province for missions and inter-state interests will be formed of the twelve dioceses in the five states composing them at a special council to be held in Detroit, Mich., next October.

The clerical delegates from the diocese of Springfield are the Revs. G. C. Dunlap of Springfield, H. C. Goodman of Champaign, William Baker of Bloomington and H. R. Neely of Jacksonville. The lay delegates to this council are Hon. M. F. Gilbert of Cairo, Hon. C. E. Hay of Springfield and Messrs. Elmhurst of Belleville and McFadden of Havana. Wednesday night there was an inspiring meeting under the presidency of a layman, Mr. Elmhurst of Belleville, for the thorough discussion of finances and bringing long distant points in the diocese into a better understanding and quicker touch with each other. Mr. H. M. Andre of this city made a quiet, but very effective address at this meeting. The Rev. Mr. Neely was made a member of the committee on religious education with special duties towards high schools and preparatory schools. The Rev. Mr. Neely was also the chairman of the committee on the State of the Church and presented a paper reviewing conditions, achievements and failures during the past year. The paper was very favorably commented on. Associated with Rev. Mr. Neely in this work were the Rev. W. H. Tomlins of Granite City, the Rev. Arthur Goodner of Alton and Messrs. W. B. Zimmerman of East St. Louis and Robert DeVore of Mound City.

The Ingredients Are High Class

In making cakes and pastry for our Delicatessen department, we could use much cheaper materials and still have fairly good results. We have chosen however to make use only of high quality materials and so the Delicatessen pies, cakes, salads, etc. will be found uniformly good.

We believe that the people are appreciating these high quality goods, if judgment can be based on the very liberal patronage given.

W. P. T. MASTERS TAKEN TO MAPLEWOOD SANITORIUM

Is There for Treatment of Nervous Disorder—Battle With Imaginary Enemies at Pacific Hotel Caused Him to be Placed in Restraint.

William R. T. Masters got into trouble Thursday morning at an early hour by fighting an imaginary gun battle with imaginary foes at the Pacific hotel. After Masters thought he had emptied the chamber of his revolver at a man he thought he saw peering at him through the transom of his room he hurled a wash bowl and pitcher through the opening.

As the result of the hostile demonstration Mr. Masters was taken in hand by the police and was later turned over to Sheriff Rogers. As there are strong reasons to believe that Masters was not in his right mind when he did the supposed shooting he was given a rigorous examination in the state attorney's office and after making a lengthy statement there agreed to go to Maplewood Sanatorium for treatment for two weeks. This plan was not satisfactory to him but he accepted it rather than take the chance of having a jury declare him insane and send him to Jacksonville State Hospital.

The statement Masters made yesterday, was at his own request as he said he had never been given fair treatment by the press of Jacksonville in reporting trials in which he was the central figure. State's Attorney Smith arranged to have Henry W. English, court reporter take down the statement which is several thousand words in length and is really an incoherent jumble of language.

The facts seem to be that Masters went to the Pacific hotel Wednesday night and was assigned to a room. About midnight he complained that he could not sleep and had the porter go to a doctor and get him some tablets to induce sleep. Several hours later he was found by Night Clerk George Scott in the corridor in his night clothes with a quilt around him walking up and down. He gave some unintelligible explanation of his conduct and was persuaded to go to bed. Nothing further was heard from him until persons in rooms adjacent to his reported hearing a disturbance there about six a. m. and he was found out in the hallway in his night clothes. He was led and pushed into his room which was in great disorder.

Then the police were notified and the warlike guest was taken from the hotel. The statement made in the state's attorney's office is an attempted explanation of Masters' doings at the hotel. He evidently imagined all sorts of sights and conversations and seemed to believe that various and sundry people were intruding upon his rights, annoying him and were ready at any moment to do him bodily harm. He seemed to think that he had shot in self defense, and that he had hurled the bowl and pitcher after he had emptied his revolver of cartridges.

Charles S. French who has been very ill for the past two weeks at the home of his brother, A. L. French at Chapin shows no signs of improvement and his condition is accounted as critical.

SOME STOLEN FOWLS.

Chicken thieves have twice recently visited the poultry house of H. A. Molohon on Webster avenue. A week or two since four hens and Tuesday night two more were taken. They were Buff Oringtons and greatly prized by the owner. He also keeps some anconas but these were not molested. Mr. Molohon thinks he has some idea as to the identity of the offenders and will keep a sharp lookout for any future visitors.

MORTUARY

O'Neal.

Lamar (Mo.) Journal: J. C. O'Neal died at his home on South Gulf street, Monday afternoon about six o'clock. Mr. O'Neal had been ill but a short time. The cause of his death is believed to have been a quick and malignant growth in the liver.

Mr. O'Neal, who has always been a very healthy man was first taken ill, about three weeks ago. His indisposition lasted several days, but it was not considered of a serious nature, and he was soon up and about as usual.

But Sunday, May 2nd, he became quite ill, though he did not take to his bed for a time. He suffered a terrible and distressing nausea and could retain nothing upon his stomach. He got better, however, and Tuesday he was so well that he wanted Mrs. O'Neal to drive him out to the farm. But early Wednesday morning he became very ill, and he got little relief until Sunday. Until about two o'clock in the afternoon, he was quite comfortable. He and Mrs. O'Neal spent a good part of the day alone. He expressed his deep appreciation of the fact that he was much more comfortable and his pleasure at the opportunity to spend the day alone with Mrs. O'Neal.

He told her he was only temporarily better. He would have to die in a short time. He knew that. When he had another bad attack and the physician told Mrs. O'Neal the truth she was prepared for it. He thought the patient could live ten days. Mr. O'Neal received this information almost impersonally. He hoped it was right. He said: "That would give the children who were away from home a chance to arrange their affairs and come. No soldier upon the field of battle, no martyr in the face of impending doom ever showed a more gallant disregard for his own fate, than did this quiet, brave simple hearted gentleman."

His anxious thoughts were of the wife, who had gone through life at his side. His sons had all reached manhood and while it was a great grief to see them no more, he was naturally secure in their ability to care for themselves. The end came much quicker than was anticipated, and he met it without a tremor or an expression of regret.

J. C. O'Neal was born near Jacksonville, Illinois, August 12th, 1845. He was born upon the old O'Neal homestead, which was entered by his father, directly from government. He grew to manhood upon the old home place, and while visiting his brother, in Missouri, he met and courted Miss Kate Duval, of Plattsburg. Mr. O'Neal's brother, Fred O'Neal, had married Miss Kate's sister, Miss Mand, so it was that he fell in love with and married the sister of his brother's wife. The pair were married at Plattsburg, October 19th, 1879. They went back to live upon the old homestead, that was never occupied by other than a member of the family, until the deceased moved to Lamar, three years ago.

Four sons survive Mr. O'Neal. They are Messrs. Duval and Carlton O'Neal, both of St. Louis, Mr. Fred O'Neal, of Beloit, Wisconsin, and Don O'Neal of this city.

Mr. O'Neal, his wife and youngest son, moved to Lamar, three years ago. He purchased the handsome property on South Gulf, and bought a fine three hundred and twenty acre farm, a short distance north of Lamar.

Mr. O'Neal was a prominent member of the Elk's lodge. He took a very keen and intelligent interest in politics, though he would never run for office. He was an ardent Republican, and had a knowledge of public men and affairs that was little short of wonderful. He lived as he died, a simply, kindly gentleman, modest, truthful and unafraid.

Funeral services were announced to take place at the residence at 10:30 Wednesday forenoon, followed by interment in Lake cemetery.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO MR. CORCORAN

The Billboard pays the following well deserved tribute to the memory of the late George Corcoran, whose funeral was held in this city Sunday last. It will be read with interest by George's many friends: George R. (Corcoran) formerly adjuster of the Ringling Bros. shows and also in the past connected with the Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows, died at Independence, Kas., May 6, of blood poisoning. Mr. Corcoran was a trooper of the old school; highly respected by his employers, loved by his associates, and his demise will cause a pang of regret in the hearts of his acquaintances who are numbered by the thousands. At the time of his death Mr. Corcoran was proprietor of the Santa Fe Hotel, at Independence, and always had a smile and the latch string out for the trooper, regardless of his financial condition. We join with his many friends in extending condolence and sympathy to the bereaved wife and brother.
